A tremendous treat for true tango aficionados and all those who enjoy great dancers as this exciting couple continue to enthrall audiences in the most prestigious festivals throughout the world.

Cervila & Garcia are one of the most explosive tango couples over the entire globe. They are no strangers to Broadway having been featured in the hit "Tango Argentina" at the Gershwin Theatre, and danced at Lincoln Center and NY's Town Hall.

Cervila who is referred to by his stage name "Junior" and is called "the Gene Kelly of Latin Dance" spent a year with the show of Julio Iglesias and filmed for the BBC dancing with Deborah Bull, the prima ballerina of the Royal Ballet.

Garcia, based with Cervila in her native Argentina, began dancing at the age of five. She toured with the world's foremost tango companies and was a partner of the revered Juan Carlos Copés.
